The Legend of the Candy Cane

According to multiple sources, in 1670, in Cologne, Germany, the choirmaster at Cologne Cathedral, wishing to remedy the noise caused by children in the church during the Living Creche tradition of Christmas Eve, asked a local candy maker for some "sugar sticks" for them. In order to justify the practice of giving candy to children during worship services, he asked the candy maker to add a crook to the top of each stick, which would help children remember the shepherds who visited the infant Jesus. In addition, he used the white color of the sticks to teach children about the sinless life of Jesus. From Germany, candy canes spread to other parts of Europe, where they were handed out during plays reenacting the Nativity. From then on, the candy cane became associated with the Christmas season. Sometime around the 1900s, the red stripes were added, and they were flavored with peppermint or wintergreen.

Although most of the candy cane's history and meaning are speculative, it still does not take away from the fact that this delicious confectionary can be used as a teaching instrument and a reminder of what the Christmas season is all about. Below is a poem commonly used to associate and tell the legend of the candy cane.

*"Look at a candy cane and what do you see?
Stripes that are red like the blood Christ gave for me.
White is for God's Son, who's sinless and pure.
J is for Jesus, my Savior, that's for sure!
Turn it around and a staff you will see-
Jesus, my good shepherd who cares for me!"*

From our family to yours,

Wishing you a very Blessed Christmas and a Joyous New Year!

A WORD FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Like many of you, Christmas may be my favorite time of year. Winter has just started so I haven't yet reached the point when cabin fever sets in. The year is coming to a close and I look forward to each New Year with the hopes that it may be better than the last. I'm also blessed with an extremely organized wife who plans for the season well in advance. By December 1st, our shopping will be mostly completed. A handful of last minute items, mostly my gifts for her, are all that are left to purchase. I used to tease her about her almost obsessive level of preparation, but I came to the realization that her careful planning gave me the greatest gift of all....time. Time to remember why we celebrate Christmas in the first place. Time to enjoy gathering with family, friends and co-workers to enjoy the holiday season. Time to pause for a moment and realize all of the wonderful things in life and time to remember the many people who are much less fortunate.

This Christmas season, I hope you are able to take some time as well. Before the stresses of the holiday season start to wear on you, remember the words of Pope Francis when he said, "Christmas reveals the immense love of God for humanity. From that flows also the enthusiasm, the hope of us Christians, that in our poverty we know that we are loved, we are visited, accompanied by God; and we see the world and history as the place in which we journey together with him and amongst ourselves, towards a new heaven and a new earth."

From all of us at the Sacred Heart Foundation we would like to say thank you for your love and kindness. Your generosity supports the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart in their ministry around the world. We wish all of you a very Merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year.

Election Results

On September 20, 2022, the annual meeting was held at the Annual Benefit Dinner. The results of the election are as follows:

Nominated and elected for a three-year term ending December 31, 2024, was Dcn. Bernard Slate. Nominated and elected for a three-year term ending December 31, 2025, were Fr. Raymond Diesbourg, MSC, Judy Pearson, Tamasina Sharlow, Rose Busler, and Frank Reff.

Thank you for continuing to serve on the Sacred Heart Foundation board and giving your time and talent to fulfill our mission.

Planned Giving

Are you turning 72 this year? Has your financial institution told you that you have to take a required minimum distribution from your IRA? Are you thinking to yourself, "I don't really need that money"? If so, it may make sense to call your financial advisor and ask her to set up a charitable distribution directly from your IRA.

Individuals over age 70 can donate up to $100,000 from an IRA directly to a qualified charity without triggering any federal income taxes. Under the qualified charitable distributions provision, you request a distribution from your IRA and provide your financial advisor with the name and address of the qualifying charity. The distribution can be sent directly to the charity of your choice...like the Sacred Heart Foundation!

There are a number of potential tax benefits to you for making a charitable contribution directly from your IRA. (1) Income tax on the distribution is avoided, even if you do not itemize deductions and even if your gifts exceed the percentage of income limits for charitable deductions. (2) The distribution does not increase your adjusted gross income for purposes of reducing itemized deductions, nor does it limit the amount of deductible medical expenses or miscellaneous itemized deductions or increase the taxation of your Social Security benefits. (3) If the state you live in determines taxable income based on federal adjusted gross income, there is no state income tax on the distribution, even if the state does not allow the charitable deduction.

Maybe now is the time to speak to your financial advisor or tax professional to see if a donation directly from your IRA to the Sacred Heart Foundation, makes sense for you.

MSCs Together in Prayer in South Sudan

Fr. Alan Neville, MSC writes from South Sudan, where MSC Superior General, Fr. Abzalón Alvarado, MSC, spent a week experiencing local ministries in July.

"Soon after arriving in South Sudan in November 2020 for my current appointment, I received a message from Fr. Abzalón, the MSC Superior General, wishing me the best with the new mission and saying that he would like to visit one day. Less than two years later, I was finally able to welcome him.

Part of the Superior General's mission was to see what was happening in the Diocese of Rumbek and to explore if there was a need for a greater MSC presence. To that end, we met with the head of religious missionaries in the country, the coordinator of the Jesuit Refugee Service, and Christian Carlassare, the newly ordained Bishop of the Diocese of Rumbek, before traveling to Loretto Rumbek, which served as Fr. Abzalón's base for the week.

Fr. Abzalón had the opportunity to explore the Loreto compound, as well as the Catholic University of South Sudan, Rumbek, where I work as principal. We also took part in the 45 kilometer peace walk to the Parish of the Good Shepherd in Thonadiel, celebrated South Sudan's Independence Day, spent time in some of the local villages in Maker Kuei, and visited the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart in Mapourdit.

Having had the opportunity to experience a taste of our current ministry here, Fr. Abzalón wrote:

'The mission...is a wonderful and prophetic project of education and integral promotion, especially of young women. The community there struggle day by day to build and transform this challenging and complex, but at the same time, beautiful reality. The Chevalier Family is present in South Sudan.'

Sincere thanks for your support of our missionaries all over the world.

*God Bless,
Fr. Alan"*
